PERSONAL PROFILE

One of my personal characteristics is that I am a hard worker who enjoys learning new things and adapting to different situations. My involvement as a service crew member at our family-owned karinderya (small eatery) and my function as a working student have provided me with important work experience and a strong work ethic.

I am currently employed as a Barista in Kafaebara former Big Brew, where I have developed my talents in preparing and serving beverages while giving exceptional customer service. This experience has taught me to pay close attention to detail, to work well under pressure, and to communicate effectively.
